

The Joseph S. Murphy Institute Invites You to a Forum:

“Facing Gentrification, Reclaiming Community”

A special panel organized cooperatively by the Center for Labor and Community and MA students in the Urban Studies and Labor Studies programs

East New York public meeting, January 2015

Gentrification is everyone’s challenge. Panelists will examine ways in which neighborhood residents can develop political influence and strategic alliances that help shape affordable housing and other initiatives so they do not end up displacing the very people they are meant to serve.

Sharon Cromwell, Political Policy Analyst, SEIU Local 32 BJ

Monique "Mo" George, NYC Chapter Director of Organizing, Community Voices Heard

Andrew Padilla, East Harlem Documentary film maker

Fitzroy Christian, CASA: Community Action for Safe Apartments Leader, member of the Real Affordability for All coalition

Moderated by JSML alum Eddie Rosario, AFSCME Local 375/DC37

Tuesday, March 24, 2015

6:00pm – 7:30pm

18th Floor

RSVP at: <http://reclaiming-community.eventbrite.com>

Refreshments Served

Join the Conversation at:

#MurphyTalks

Murphy Blog: <http://murphyinstituteblog.org>